

Keep New Jersey's do not call list active. If anything, make it more stringent so that so called fund raisers can not call as well. I'd rather not get another call from a scam artist using a survey as cover as well. We work too damn hard and too damn long in this country, to have to come home and have our privacy invaded on a phone line that we pay too damn much for in New Jersey!
Thank you.